2. Policy Overview

The Academy is committed to equality of opportunity and access and regards all pupils as having equal worth and importance, for all, regardless of:

- Disability
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation
- Age
- Gender reassignment
- Pregnancy and maternity

together, the "protected characteristics".

Excellence, access, inclusion and equality of opportunity are the core values which underpin all of our activities. We believe that the active promotion of diversity within the overarching equality of opportunity enriches the lives and experiences of all pupils at the Academy.

The Academy recognises that its community is made up of a broad range of individuals and groups with a wide variety of backgrounds, experiences, lifestyles, languages and cultures, and seeks to retain a pupil intake from within the geographical base in the catchment area and outside. The Academy is committed to the principle that all pupils should be treated with dignity and respect.

The Academy aims to:

- Challenge and deal with all incidents of prejudice, intolerance and/or discrimination
- Meet all our pupils' needs, encourage them to achieve their full potential, and raise educational standards
- Raise awareness of, and to celebrate, cultural diversity and prepare pupils for a life in a culturally diverse society
- Promote equality of opportunities for all pupils to achieve as highly as possible
- Provide an appropriate learning experience for all pupils, whatever race, ethnicity, culture, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ability or social situation
- Develop a culture which values everybody and provides the opportunity to learn in an environment free of prejudice
- Ensure that all staff educate against any form of prejudice or negative stereotyping and that their conduct with pupils and colleagues reflects this responsibility at all times
- Ensure that pupils, staff and parents are not adversely affected in any area of the Academy's activities on grounds of diversity.
- Take specific action to tackle any differences between sub-groups such as racial groups in their attainment levels and progress, in the use of disciplinary measures against them (such as exclusion), in admissions, or in assessment
- Create an ethos in which these issues can be discussed openly by the whole Academy community including parents
- Use opportunities through assemblies to deal with issues of prejudice and the importance of the values of inclusiveness, community, equality, and mutual respect
- Consider the equality implications whenever it is taking significant decisions or developing policy.

3. Public Sector Equality Duty

The Academy fully recognises its public sector equality duty under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010. The Academy will, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited under the Equality Act 2010;
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a "protected characteristic" (see below) and people who do not share it; and
- Foster good relations across all characteristics, between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

The Academy will keep a written record to show where it has actively considered its equality duties and asked relevant questions.

The Academy also recognises its specific duties to:

- Publish information (which will be updated annually) to demonstrate that it is complying with the public sector equality; and

- Prepare and publish equality objectives every four (4) years. The Academy will publish equality information on its website.

4. Curriculum

Equal opportunity for all is evident in the delivery of:

- The formal curriculum (programme of lessons)
- The informal curriculum (extra-curricular activities)
- The 'hidden' curriculum (the ethos of the school, e.g. the quality of personal relationships).

All pupils are entitled to equal access to all areas of the curriculum.

Learning materials will be free from bias and suitably differentiated to enable full access to the curriculum by all pupils.

The PSHE Curriculum, which includes Sex and Relationship Education (SRE), and other curriculum areas promote the value of diversity and deal with the problem of prejudice and its effects.

Staff must remain cognisant of all equal opportunity issues.

Staff will respond positively to the individual needs of all pupils.

Curriculum planning and Schemes of Work will demonstrate strategies, teaching and learning styles and resources which enable all pupils, regardless of their ability and personal characteristics, to maximise their performance and achievement

* see Accessibility Plan for Disability Provisions.

5. Extra-Curricular Activities/Enrichment Programme

We will endeavour to provide a range of activities to meet the needs of all pupils.

All pupils are encouraged to access the full range of extra-curricular activities. Provisions to support participation may need to be agreed e.g. changing facilities.

Specific Academy Accessibility Plans outline support and provisions made available to all pupils to enable full engagement with chosen activities.

Where provisions are not explicitly described in the Accessibility Plan school staff invite parents/carers to a meeting to discuss the individual needs of their child and plan to support access and enjoyment of chosen activities.

6. Staff's Role in Equality for Pupils

The Academy recognises the need to actively protect all children and adults who may be vulnerable because of their disabilities or characteristics. Staff and pupils will work together to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimization.

The Academy is committed to an equal opportunity recruitment policy and equality for staff is dealt with under the Equal Opportunities for Staff policy.

The Academy will:

- Provide training and support to staff in carrying out their responsibilities under the policy
- Insist that all members of staff challenge all inappropriate prejudicial conduct both in and out of the classroom
- Regularly examine the content of resources to ensure that negative images are not portrayed
- Use strategies set out in the behaviour and anti-bullying policies for addressing and preventing discrimination

- Work with local agencies (e.g. local authority, police) to assist in fostering equality of opportunity through any local initiatives.

7. Pupil Conduct

Pupils are encouraged to promote a climate of understanding, tolerance and harmony and report any occurrence of discrimination.

- An immediate referral will be made, in writing and as soon as possible, to the appropriate Class Teacher, Form Tutor, Head of Year (or equivalent), Head of Department or a member of the Senior Leadership Team (SLT).
- The perpetrator(s) will be made fully aware of the reasons why such behaviour is unacceptable and given the opportunity to review and modify their inappropriate behaviour as part of a long term strategy.
- The victim(s) will be provided with support (short or long term) and be kept informed of any action being taken on their behalf.
- The parents or carers of both the perpetrator(s) and victim(s) will be informed immediately, in writing, of the incident and the action being taken.
- The parents or carers of the perpetrator(s) may be requested to visit the Academy in order to discuss the incident.

9. Admissions

The Academy Admissions Policy complies with the Admissions Code and welcomes a diverse pupil population. This encompasses all abilities, aptitudes, social backgrounds and any of the protected characteristics apart from age, which is not a protected characteristic that applies to pupils in schools.

10. Uniform

In implementing its uniform policy, the Academy has regard to its duty not to discriminate on grounds of the protected characteristics.

The Academy pupil uniform and staff dress code make provision for religious diversity. The Academy will consider written requests from parents for variations in the uniform on religious grounds or on the basis of other protected characteristics. The Principal may take expert advice and will normally arrange to meet with the parents to discuss the implications of such a request.

Any complaints regarding the Academy's decision in this regard should be raised in accordance with Academy's Complaints Policy.
